

There's a chance to make a Chinese pagoda out of bricks or to dress up in Chinese clothes. The new white board displays pictures on a Chinese theme.

This term the whole school has as it's theme 'Fantasy' so there's plenty of opportunity to let the imagination develop. Red Riding Hood is a favourite story so some children are enjoying some cooking in Red Riding Hood's house - or is it Grandma's house? Not sure where the wolf is. Maybe he's waiting for the food to be ready before he pounces!

