

Here's a cancer cell which has been 'flagged' by an antibody so it will soon be destroyed by other cells. David was able to explain how cancer cells needed antibodies to get better.

Alex Y thought the workshop was great fun. Izzy thought she would like to make medicines some day. Jack said he enjoyed experimenting with things as you never knew what was going to happen. MedImmune may have found some new recruits!

