What is it?

Suffolk Links is a Demand Responsive Transport (DRT) service which provides connections to bus and train links in rural areas.

How does it work?

- If you live in the area covered by Suffolk Links – Three Towns and are not able to access a bus service directly, the service will pick you up from a convenient point.
- Where appropriate the service will connect with bus services for onward travel to further destinations.
- For journeys within the service area where connecting to other services is inappropriate, end to end journeys will be possible.
- Simply call 0845 604 1802 up to a week before you wish to travel and book your journey.
- Suffolk Links – Three Towns will then pick you up at the point agreed and take you where you want to go within the defined area.
- The booking service is open from 8am to 4pm Monday to Friday, making it easier for you to plan ahead.
- Bookings will be on a first come, first served basis.

Other bus services in the area

The 344 and 345 services between Haverhill and Bury St Edmunds will offer a more direct route, following the A143 for much of the journey and running generally hourly and with buses earlier in the morning and later in the day. More buses will serve Bury St Edmunds railway station and most will additionally serve West Suffolk Hospital.

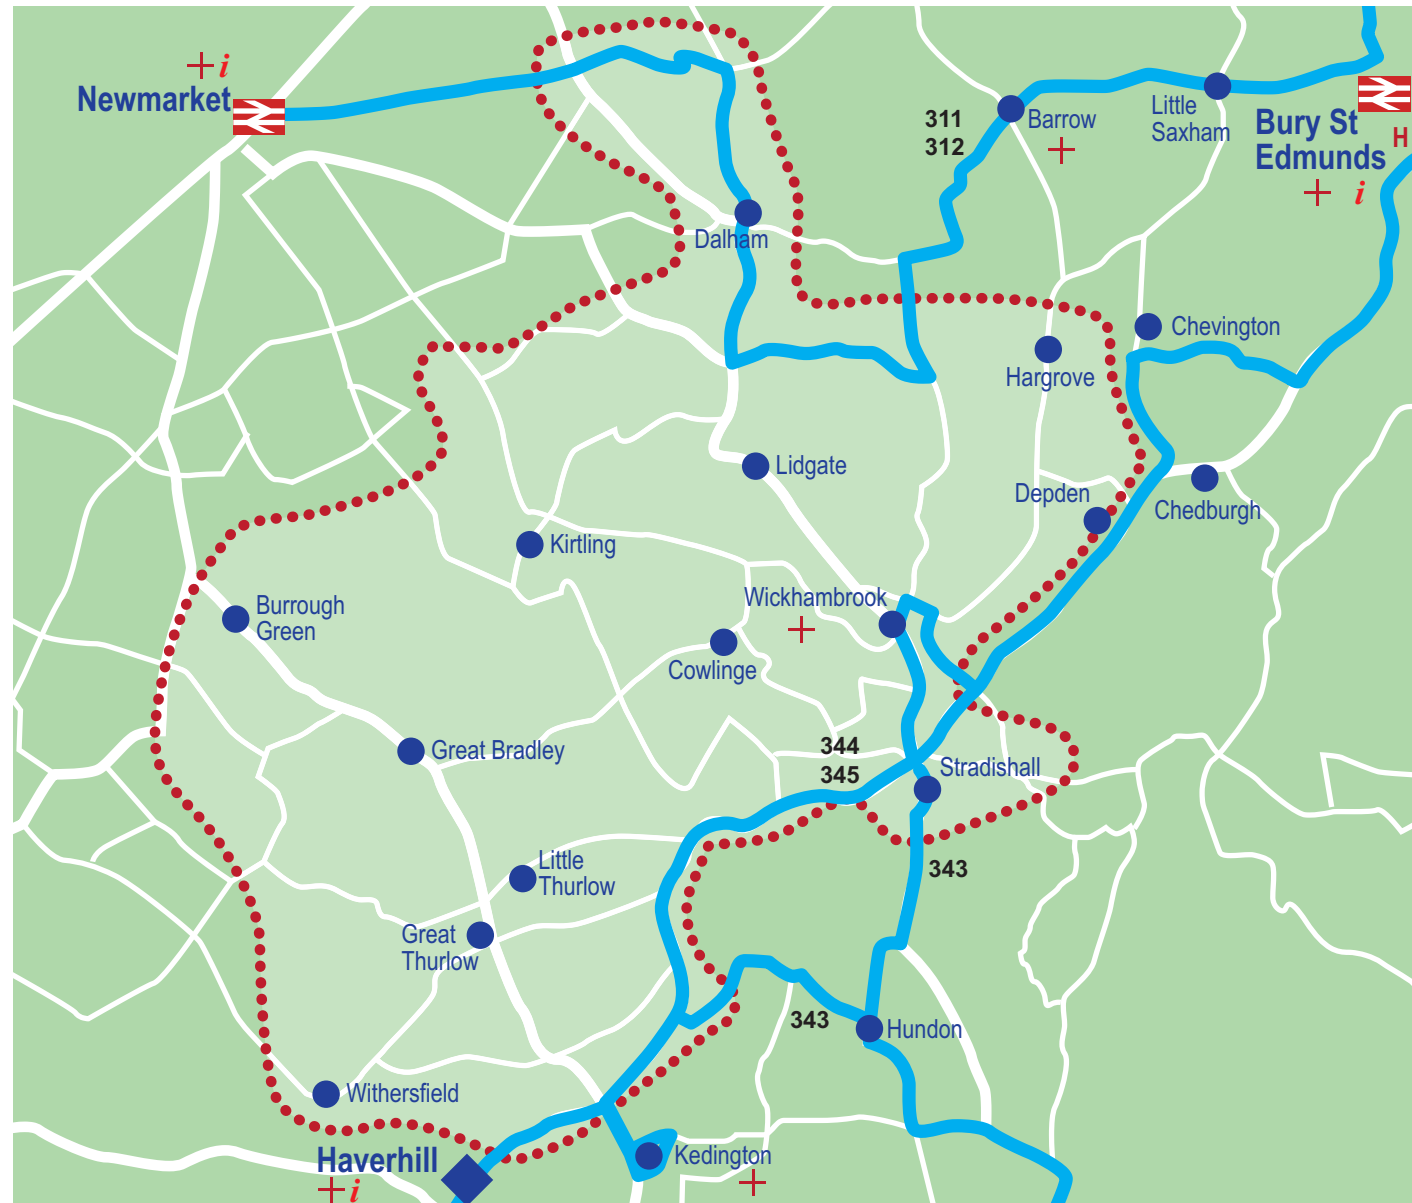

New service 343 will connect Haverhill, Barnardiston, Hundon, Stradishall, Wickhambrook serving Clare on a Saturday. Connections will be possible on some journeys with 344, 345 for onward travel to Bury St Edmunds and with 'Suffolk Links' for travel towards Newmarket and to other villages within the area.

Bury St Edmunds and Newmarket will continue to be served by the 311 and 312 routes, roughly every two hours, also serving Ousden, Dalham, Gazeley and Moulton.

Imagine if there was a bus that would pick you up from your door...

Well now there is!
